Exclusive Golf Tour in France
NORMANDY & BRITTANY- 8 days / 7 nights / 4 rounds of golf

Day 1

From Paris Travel to Normandy (2,5h). On the way, suggested sightseeing (depending on arrival time):

Visit of Monet's gardens in Giverny, a wonderful promenade in the flower paradise of the impressionist Master. The house with its pink crushed brick where Claude Monet lived from 1883 to 1926 once again has its colourful décor. The visitor can admire the collection Japanese prints of the Master, the huge Nymphéas studio which contains the Foundation's shop.

The garden have been replanted as they once were: the rectangular Clos Normand offers from Spring to Autumn the palette of varying colours of the painter-gardener who was "ecstatic about flowers". Lastly the water garden with its famous Japanese Bridge, its azalea and its pond has become again that casket of sky and water which inspired the pictorial universe of the water lilies.

Lodging at Deauville's Hotel du Golf Barrière, a luxury four star hotel overlooking Deauville, with an informal friendly ambiance in a handsome and typical Norman architecture dated from early 20th century. The golf course surrounds the hotel, making the Hotel du Golf the perfect golf resort situated within 10 minutes from one of the most famous French shopping area (Deauville) and 30 minutes from the magnificent Honfleur painters' port.

Day 2

Golf at Deauville golf course

Overlooking Deauville's bay, players putt under the windows of the Grand Hotel at Deauville Golf, an old and challenging course designed by Tom Simpson.

A large variety of trees such as oak, elm, ash, apple trees (symbol of the Calvados country) surrounds the fairways, where remain some piece of wall of the Marquis de Lassay's castle.

Deauville is one of the most exclusive golf course in Normandy where many foreign golfers come from all over the world to enjoy golf, relax and ...gambling at the famous casino

Tasting Visit of a Calvados liquor distillery

Château de Breuil

Nestling in a verdant setting in the heart of the Pays d'Auge, the Château de Breuil is one of the finest examples of the region's architectural heritage.

The Château de Breuil stands proud amidst a vast parkland with hundred-year-old trees.

Built in the 16th-17th centuries, many a noble family has resided there, such as the Bouquetots, the Montgomerys, the Bences...

Today, the Château de Breuil is also one of the region's most prestigious Calvados distilleries (established in 1954). It offers visitors guided tours and vintage Calvados tasting sessions every day of the year.

Lodging at Deauville's Hotel du Golf

Day 3

Full-day Guided Tour: Visit of the D.Day Beaches (Omaha Beach, one of the bloodiest beaches on June 6 1944, Pointe du Hoc, symbol of courage of the Colonel Rudder's 225 rangers, the American cemetery, Sainte-Mère Eglise and its hung paratrooper, Utah Beach).

American Cemetery

This 172,5 acres cemetery overlooks Omaha Beach. It contains the graves of 9,387 soldiers killed during the Normandy Campaign. A chapel, a Memorial and a Garden of the Missing pays tribute to their memory. The Visitor Centre pays homage to the courage and competence shown during Operation Overlord and the liberation of Europe, as well as to the sacrifice of those who are now resting in this place

Day 4

Golf at Etretat golf course

Situated at the top of Etretat's cliffs and overlooking the worldwide known natural arches in the cliffs (Aiguille Creuse), this outstanding golf course is considered as one of the most spectacular in Europe.

Like all the authentic links, Etretat Golf Course offers windy conditions and dreadful gorse surrounding some of the fairways requiring long and straight iron shots, which represent a tough challenge for the golfers. Even though you have reached the green, the difficulties remain with the up and down slopes and the flagsticks bending in the gusts.

Suggested visit of Etretat

Located 65km from Deauville, this romantic beach village, is known worldwide for its white cliffs, its roman & gothic church, the market place...

It was also a cultural area where artists such as Monet, Manet, writer Guy de Maupassant or composer Offenbach liked to come.

Sightseeing in Honfleur and its famous painters' port, with its colourful fishing boats and timber-beamed houses, which has been a haven for artists since the beginning of the impressionist period. It's on the estuary where the Seine river meets the English Channel

Day 5

Transfer to Dinard in Brittany (2h). On the way:

Guided visit of Mont Saint Michel with its impressive Romanesque and Gothic abbey and the abbey church, as well as the Merveille, a 13th century three-story collection of rooms and passageways, built around and on top of the Monastery. Museum about the "Birth of the Bay" situated close to Mont Saint Michel, the "Maison de la Baie" explains the history of the Bay on an audiovisual tour. It aims at helping you to understand the astonishing natural phenomena which have given the Bay its unique character

Lodging at Grand Hotel de Dinard

The Grand Hotel de Dinard is a prestigious four-star hotel with an architecture dating back to the Second Empire, which overlooks the sea and faces the ramparts of Saint-Malo. Close to the beaches and just one stone's throw away from the Casino, the Grand Hotel de Dinard has all the charms of a typical seaside resort and was a favourite destination for aristocratic families during the 19th century

Day 6

Golf at Dinard golf course

Dinard is the second oldest golf course in France with Biarritz (and after Pau). Set along the shore, this traditional links course designed by Tom Dunn in 1887 has conserved its Scottish design. Even though the course's length appears short (par 68, 5700 yards), the wind coming from the ocean makes it much longer. Club selection at Dinard is a permanent question for players who have to know how to play any type of approach shots. On this exciting course offering spectacular views on the ocean and the Emerald coast, wisdom and accuracy are the key aspects of the game

Suggested sightseeing in Dinard

Not only are there walks along the seafront amid superb scenery, sports & leisure activities, entertainment, sea trips and trips along the River Rance to enjoy, but also the simple pleasures of the beach and bathing in the summer, and bracing walks when the air grows cooler. After a good walk to work up your appetite, why not make yourself comfortable in one of the many restaurants or crêperies

Saint Malo, fortified city built in granite rock known for its castle, the cathedral of Saint Vincent, its 14th century ramparts which overlook the sea, and famous corsairs

Lodging at Grand Hotel de Dinard

Day 7

Golf at Pleneuf golf course

Pleneuf is a superb seaside golf course with breathtaking views on the sea from most of the holes. The fairways are pretty wide for the tee-shots, but when the wind blows (and it always blows), keeping the ball in play becomes the priority. The fast greens are well defended by numerous bunkers thoughtfully placed. A few holes are set along the beach especially the eleventh, an outstanding par 5 whose back-tee is placed on the hilliest part of the course and overlooks the whole coast.

Non golfers :

Suggested sightseeing in Cap Fréhel

At the very end of 300 acres of wild land, it is one of Brittany's most impressive sites. 70 metres above the sea, Cap Fréhel offers a breathtaking panorama from the "Pointe du Cotentin to the "Ile de Béhat"

Lodging at Grand Hotel de Dinard
